

The Chas. Monson Co.

Silk Counter.

Have you been watching the steady growth of our Silk business? If qualities were not up to the mark and prices under it we'd be dragging along in the old way.

On Wednesday highest grade Silks at price of inferior ones.

At $1.25 a yd.

Satin Plaided Taffeta Silks, half dozen colors or more—you will think them worth $1.75—very attractive at the new price.

At 80c. a yd.

The 27-in. Printed Aya Silks, a Surah weave, variety of colors. You must come early for these.

At 30c. a yd.

Seems ridiculous—Cheney Bros. Printed Silks at such a price.—Have received mail orders from New York and Brooklyn—must be that they are cheap.

At 75c. a yd.

Printed Japanese Silks, in plain stripes—these are 27-inch also—and equally cheap.

California Claret
No sham, no humbug about it, but an American label on an American Claret. It doesn't sail under a French flag—this Claret came to us direct from California, nearly a year ago. It is old and the quality first-class—much superior to a French Claret, which costs double. It is bottled by us at our place of business, at the most favorable time, and will be found brilliant. One hundred dozen in stock, of recent bottling.

Price, per dozen, quarts, - $2.50.
Price, per dozen, pints, - $1.75.

Full market price paid for bottles on their return.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion.

A large and fashionable audience was present last evening at Mrs. Potter and Mr. Bell's presentation of "Charlotte Corday," an original play in four acts, founded on an incident in the life of Charlotte Corday by J. C. Montaigne. The time and place was France, 1793. Mrs. Potter as "Charlotte Corday" won the hearts of the audience and was called before the curtain at the end of every act. Mr. Bell as "Jean Paul Marat" was excellent and was encored at many intervals. Others in the cast worthy of mention were Arthur Hawater, Mason Mitchell, Verne Charges, Henry Chanfrau, Miss Ida Ward, Miss Marion Eric, Miss Helen Lowell and Miss Perdita Hudepeth.

Direct from its big run of three months in New York and fresh from the hands of its author, Mr. Charles H. Hoyt, "A Milk White Flax" comes to-night and to-morrow night, and then the amusement seekers of New Haven will be permitted to see this, the best of Hoyt's productions just as it was put on in New York city for a long run. As now presented this extremely amusing and brilliant satire on the citizen soldier is acknowledged by press and public to be unsurpassed by any similar production on the stage. Mr. Hoyt has given the piece a sumptuous and magnificent setting, provided new and gorgeous costumes, and engaged a company of superior merit. From a musical standpoint the piece would readily pass for a comic opera, and a good one at that. Mr. Hoyt's unique characters will be personated by Miss Isabelle Cox, a prime favorite here; Miss Rose Sutherland, Charles Stanley, R. A. Roberts, Frank Lawton, Lloyd Wilson, E. J. Garvie, and Frank J. Keenan, the latter specially engaged for the part of the general. Sale of seats now open.

Grand Opera House.

The great success of "The Viking" on its initial performance in this city on Monday evening was all sufficient to draw out a large audience at the production last night, when it again scored another hit which will help to carry it to the glory that has been predicted for it. The opera went off much more smoothly than on Monday night. In fact there were no delays of any kind and all of the principals showed a thorough acquaintance with their parts, which added much to bring about a most successful result. The opera will be repeated this afternoon and evening.

W. A. Brady's "Humanity" comes to the Grand opera house Thursday, Friday, Saturday. Melodramas which were the most popular theatrical attractions a quarter of a century ago, are again assuming popular sway. Sutton Vane, the English playwright's latest success, "Humanity," is to be produced here by Manager Brady with a superb cast and a wealth of new and novel scenery. Mr. Joseph R. Griesmer, who plays the leading role, and who is known as an exceedingly clever stage manager, will direct the production, which assures the closest attention to every detail. In the war tableaux over 100 people and twenty horses are seen upon the stage, and the scenic effects are said to surpass anything ever before presented. "Humanity" matinee Saturday.

Poll's Wonderland Theater.

A funnier entertainment cannot be imagined than that which Lew Dockstader is furnishing this week at the Wonderland. The quaint humor that has made him such a prime favorite for years in New Haven seems to have grown more brilliant since he began to work without the surrounding annoyances of a large company, and those who have laughed with Dockstader in his former visits find far greater provocation to laugh in the fun he is now producing. When he sings and talks of local matters like the dust nuisance, the trolley system, our unpaved streets, the Dr. Lee case, and the Harvard football team, skillfully interweaving national topics, he never fails to bring down the chiller and most straight-faced audience. The artists who are with him on the bill keep everyone amused also.

Missionary Society Meeting.

Held yesterday in Trinity Parish House—Officers Elected.

The regular annual meeting of the Women's Church Missionary association was held in Trinity church parish house yesterday afternoon. Annual reports were submitted by the secretary and the treasurer, after which the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. T. H. Bishop; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Daniel C. Egan; assistant secretary, Mrs. Caroline E. Jones; recording secretary, Mrs. F. C. Rowland; and treasurer, Mrs. George Tuttle.

During the past year a scholarship has been established by the society at St. Mark's school in Salt Lake City, and also a scholarship at St. Augustine's school in St. Augustine, Fla. Money was appropriated to keep up two beds at Mrs. Beaufort's hospital in Lawrenceville, Va.

The next meeting will be held on the first Wednesday in October, after which the regular monthly meetings will be held during the winter.
